

“If I perish, I perish”

Esther 4:1-17

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

God isn't named once in this chapter. Where do you see Him anyway?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

Mordecai tells Esther that staying silent won't save her. What does this show you about the cost of playing it safe?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

What have you been staying quiet about to protect yourself — and what would speaking up look like this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Who do you know who's in the right place at the right time and doesn't see it yet?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, if You've put me where I am for such a time as this, give me the nerve to walk through the door — whatever it costs.
