

A child is promised

Isaiah 9:2-7

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What names is the promised child given, and what will his government and peace be like?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

Where in your life does 'walking in darkness' describe how this year has felt?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

How will you carry the hope of this promise into one dark situation this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Who around you needs to hear this Christmas that a great light has dawned?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, thank you that into a people walking in darkness you promised a great light — a child whose name is Prince of Peace. Shine that light into the dark places of my life this Christmas.
