

Told to shepherds first

Luke 2:8-20

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What does the angel announce to the shepherds, and what do they do after they see the child?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

Why do you think God announced his Son's birth to shepherds before anyone important?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

The shepherds went 'with haste' — what step toward Jesus will you stop postponing this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Like the shepherds who spread the word, who will you tell about what you've found this Christmas?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, the first birth announcement in history went to night-shift shepherds, and it was good news of great joy for all people. Thank you that 'all people' includes me — and help me hurry to see Jesus like they did.
