Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What does Jesus say God intended for marriage from the beginning?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

How does Jesus' teaching meet your own story — in marriage, singleness, or after divorce — and where do you need his grace?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

What faithful step will you take this week: honoring your spouse, keeping a commitment you made, or entrusting your past to God's mercy?

4. Who will I tell?

Who needs to hear that Jesus takes covenants seriously and still offers grace to the broken?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

Jesus, your words about marriage are high and holy, and my own story may carry wounds. Help me trust that your way is good and receive your grace wherever I have been broken.
