

A seed must die

John 12:20-33

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What does Jesus say happens to the grain of wheat that dies — and to the one that doesn't?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

What comfort, position, or plan would have to die for you to actually plant?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

What one thing will you lay down this week — schedule, budget, or role — to free yourself for the new work?

4. Who will I tell?

Whom will you tell about the seed you are burying, so they can hold you to it?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

Jesus, you said the grain that dies bears much fruit. Give me courage to bury my comfort so a church can grow.
