

The friend who knocks at midnight

Luke 11:5-13

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

Jesus says that if human fathers give good things, how much more will God. What is God like?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

The man in the story gets up because his friend will not go away. Does that mean God is reluctant, or is Jesus making a different point?

3. What will I obey this week?

What will you ask God for every day this week, even if nothing happens on day one?

4. Who will I tell?

Who has stopped knocking? What could you tell them?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

Jesus, you said a man will get up at midnight for a friend who will not stop knocking, and that God is far better than that man. Help me keep knocking.
