Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

God asks, "Is anything too hard for the Lord?" What is the answer, and what does it change?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

Sarah laughs and then says she did not. Why do people hide what they really think?

3. What will I obey this week?

What is one impossible-feeling thing you will ask God for this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Who do you know who has stopped hoping for something? What could you tell them?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

Pray

God, Sarah laughed because your promise sounded impossible. Thank you that you were not angry with her. Help me remember that nothing is too hard for you.
