

Joseph's dreams, and the pit

Genesis 37:1-28

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

God gives Joseph dreams that nobody believes yet. What does that say about God's plans?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

Being jealous turns brothers into people who throw a boy into a pit. Where does jealousy start?

3. What will I obey this week?

Who in your family will you be kind to this week, especially if you are jealous of them?

4. Who will I tell?

Who is being left out where you are? What will you do about it?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, Joseph's brothers did something terrible to him, and you did not leave him there alone. Thank you that you stay with people in the worst places. Help me be kind to the brother or sister I find hardest.
