

Three hundred jars and trumpets

Judges 7:16-22

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

The weapons are trumpets, jars and torches, and God wins the battle. What does that say about him?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

Every single one of the three hundred had to do their small part at the right moment. Why does that matter?

3. What will I obey this week?

What is your small part this week, and when will you do it?

4. Who will I tell?

Who could you thank this week for doing a small thing well?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, three hundred people with jars and torches won because you were the one fighting. Thank you that you do not need big things. Help me do the small thing you gave me.
