

A boy set apart

Judges 13:1-7

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

God plans this boy's life and tells his parents before he arrives. What does that tell you about God?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

Being set apart meant living differently from everybody else. What is hard about that?

3. What will I obey this week?

What is one way you will live differently this week because you belong to God?

4. Who will I tell?

Who needs to hear that God knew them and chose them before they were born?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

*God, you had a plan for Samson before he was even born.
Thank you that you knew me before I was born too. Help me live like somebody you chose.*
