

Abraham runs to feed three strangers

Genesis 18:1-8

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

One of the visitors turns out to be the Lord. What does that tell you about who might be standing at your door?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

Abraham does not know who they are and he still hurries. Why is that better than being kind to important people?

3. What will I obey this week?

Who will you go out of your way for this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Who could you feed, or share something with, in the next few days?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, Abraham was old and it was the hottest part of the day and he ran. Help me not wait until it is convenient to be kind.

NEXT STUDY Boaz leaves grain on purpose

comission.cc/en/study/kids-kind-to-everyone/02/

This study online