Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

David goes hunting for somebody to show kindness to. What does it tell you about God that he is like this?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

Mephibosheth calls himself a dead dog, and he ends up eating at the king's table every day. What changed — him, or how he was treated?

3. What will I obey this week?

Who will you invite in this week — to your table, your game, your group?

4. Who will I tell?

Who feels forgotten? How will you show them they are not?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, the king went looking for somebody to be kind to, and he found a man everyone had forgotten. Thank you that you come looking for me. Help me make room at my table.
