

The jar that never ran out

1 Kings 17:8-16

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this show me about God?

The flour and the oil last as long as they are needed. What does that tell you about how God provides?

2. What does it show me about people — and about me?

She was making a last meal for her son and gave some away first. What does that kind of trust look like?

3. What will I obey this week?

What is one thing you will share this week even though you do not have much of it?

4. Who will I tell?

Who is running out of something? What could you give them?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, a widow with almost nothing shared it, and you did not let it run out. Thank you for what I have today. Help me be generous before I feel ready.
