Psalm 103:1-22

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What benefits does the psalmist tell his soul not to forget?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

The LORD has compassion like a father on his children — how does that compare with the way you picture him?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

How will you bless the LORD out loud this week for one specific thing he has done?

4. Who will I tell?

Who could you tell how far God removes our sins — as far as the east is from the west?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

Father, you crown me with love and compassion and remove my sins as far as the east is from the west. Let everything within me bless your holy name.
