Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

According to Peter, what exactly was Ananias and Sapphira's sin — keeping some of the money, or something else?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

Where are you tempted to appear more generous or more faithful than you really are?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

Where will you choose plain honesty about money — at work or at home — this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Who could you talk with honestly about the temptation to keep up appearances?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

God, you did not demand their money — you wanted their honesty. Search my heart, and keep me from pretending to be more generous or more spiritual than I am.
