

Slave to sin, or to God?

Romans 6:15-23

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What are the two masters Paul describes, and where does serving each one lead?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

In what area do you still live as if sin were your master?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

What one part of yourself — your words, your eyes, your hands, your money — will you offer to God this week as an instrument of righteousness?

4. Who will I tell?

Who could you tell about the free gift of God — eternal life in Christ Jesus?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

Father, thank you that I am no longer sin's slave. I offer myself to you today — lead me into the obedience that ends in holiness and eternal life.
