Romans 8:18-30

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What does the Spirit do for us when we do not know what to pray?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

Where are you groaning right now, waiting for God to make things new?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

Which exhausting worry will you hand to the Spirit this week, letting him pray when you have no words?

4. Who will I tell?

Who is suffering and could be lifted by the hope of the glory to come?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

Pray

Father, when I am too tired even to pray, thank you that your Spirit prays for me. Fix my eyes on the glory to come, and work all things together for my good.
