

Hope is waiting for you

Luke 15:11-32

1 Eat

Read the passage slowly, read it again, then retell it in your own words. If you can't retell it, read it once more.

☐ Read ☐ Reread ☐ Retell

2 Digest

Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

What does the father do while the son is still a long way off?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

What has kept you from coming home to God until now?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

The son turned around and headed home — what would that turn look like for you this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Who else is far from home that you could invite to come back with you?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

Pray

Father, I have spent a long time far from home. Thank you that you are watching the road for me — I'm coming back, just as I am.
