Answer from what the passage actually says — stay in the text.

1. What does this passage show me about God?

How does Jesus treat the woman caught in adultery, and what is he claiming when he says 'I am the light of the world' and 'before Abraham was born, I am'?

2. What does it show me about people — and about myself?

Jesus said, 'You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.' Where do you still live as if you were a slave?

3. What will I obey this week? (a concrete step, with a day)

Jesus told the woman, 'Go now and leave your life of sin.' What is he asking you to leave this week?

4. Who will I tell?

Who around you is walking in darkness and needs to hear that the light of the world does not condemn those who come to him?

3 Grow

Growth is God's part, not yours. Do the cycle faithfully and trust Him to give the growth (1 Corinthians 3:6–7).

★ Pray

Jesus, you did not condemn the woman they dragged before you, and you told her, 'Go now and leave your life of sin.' You are the light of the world; lead me out of my darkness.
